ORDER SUSTAINING TRUSTEE'S OBJECTION TO EXEMPTIONS

The matter before the court is the trustee's objection to the debtors' claim of exemption in 1989 federal and state income tax refunds. The trustee objects to the claim of exemption to the extent that the claim of Donald T. Baker exceeds $1,000.00. The trustee also objects that Rebecca L. Baker is not entitled to any portion of a refund in the amount of $1,632.00. On July 23, 1990, debtors filed a consent to the entry of an order sustaining the trustee's objection to exemption by which debtors agree that the non-exempt portion of the tax return in the amount of $632.00 is to be turned over to the trustee. The court, having read the objection and examined the consent of the debtors,

IT IS ORDERED that the trustee's objection to Rebecca Baker's claim of exemption in the 1989 federal and state income tax refunds is sustained. Donald T. Baker's claim of exemption in the 1989 tax return is allowed in the amount of $1,000.00. Debtors shall turn over to the trustee the amount of $632.00.

SO ORDERED ON THIS 1st DAY OF AUGUST, 1990.
